

Irvine Ranch – 2019 Sale Report

Annual Production Sale – November 2, 2019

At the Ranch, Manhattan, KS

Auctioneer: Garren Walrod

50 Yearling SimAngus and Simmental Bulls Average $4983
30 Females – Fall Pairs and Open Heifers Average $2971

High Selling Bull Lots:

$15,500 - IR Admiral F143, a SimAngus son of Hook's Admiral, Sold to Kenner Simmentals, Leeds, ND.

$10,500 - IR Conversion F158, a SimAngus son of Eagle Pass Conversion. Sold to Dixon Farms, Thomasville, AL.

$8,000 - IR Opportunity F159, a SimAngus son of IR Opportunity D950. Sold to Salinas Farms, Marion, MI.

$7,500 - IR Makers Mark F118, a SimAngus son of TJ Makers Mark 215Y. Sold to Tyson and Travis Basore, MO.

High Selling Female Lots:

$5,250 - IR MS Geneva C575, a daughter of W/C United 956Y. Sold to Fairfield Family Farms, Fooseland, IL.

A large crowd was on hand for the 15th Annual Irvine Ranch Production Sale. The Irvine's would like to extend a sincere thank you to our loyal customers and friends for making November 2nd a special day at Irvine Ranch! 70% of the cattle sold to repeat customers. A majority of the cattle sold to Kansas, with Buyers also from MO, IL, ND, AL, IN, KY, NE, and MI capitalizing on the opportunity to take home profit driven, functional SimGenetics. Mark your calendars for the Irvine Ranch 16th Annual Production Sale, November 7, 2020. Please see www.IrvineRanchGenetics.com for more information.

